Obituary for Carlos VanAusdall

Carlos Ivor VanAusdall, known to his close friends as Hebe and to his family as Ivor, passed away, Tuesday, October 20, 2009 at the age of 83 years at St Francis Hospital, Maryville, after a long bout with emphysema. Ivor was born February 20, 1926 to Seneca Theodore and Zetta Mae (Mitchell) VanAusdall, in a relative's home outside of Burlington Junction Missouri. In 1943, Ivor graduated from Horace Mann High School in Maryville. He moved on to a career in auto mechanics, working first for independent shops and dealerships. His first successful body shop was in Stanberry and he later moved that business to Maryville, where it was known, until he retired, as "Ivor's Paint and Body Shop". Ivor married his sweetheart, Marilyn June Gard on August 10, 1946. Marilyn and Ivor built a home and business while raising three children, Judy, Cindy and William. Ivor was preceded in death by his parents; wife: Marilyn, of 61 years; sisters: Joan Farley and Wilma Thomas; half-sisters: Vetra Constant and Verneda Nelson; brother: Vernon VanAusdall; daughter: Cindy Noble and great-grandson: Colton VanAusdall. He is survived by his daughter: Judy (Richard) Jennings from Stanberry, Missouri; his son: William (Eleanor) VanAusdall from Kansas City, Missouri; son-in-law: Clark Noble from Wheatland, Wyoming; seven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. Services will be held at 10:30 am Friday, October

Marilyn June VanAusdall
1928-2008

Marilyn June VanAusdall, 80, Maryville, Mo., formerly of Stanberry, Mo., died Saturday, June 21, 2008, at Parkdale

Manor Nursing Home, Maryville.

Marilyn was born March 6, 1928, in Barnard, Mo., to Herbert Lee and Pearl West Gard.

On Aug. 10, 1946, she married Ivor VanAusdall at Maryville.

During her children's growing-up years, Mrs. VanAusdall was an active homemaker and community volunteer in Stanberry, serving enthusiastically as room mother, Girl Scout leader, and Cub Scout den mother. Following her return to Maryville, she became secretary to the library director, Northwest Missouri State University, a position she held for over 20 years. She was a first-rate seamstress and needlewoman. Her handmade quilts were treasured gifts to friends and family. She also enjoyed growing and arranging flowers, but the center of her life was family. She was ardent in her love for both her immediate family and for her extended brood. To say she will be missed is an understatement.

She was preceded in death by daughter Cynthia Noble, brother Darl Gard, and great-grandson Colton VanAusdall.

She is survived by her husband Ivor VanAusdall of the home; daughter Judy Jennings and husband Richard of Stanberry; son William VanAusdall and wife Eleanor of Kansas City, Mo.; son-in-law Clark Noble of Wheatland, Wyo.; grandchildren Brent and Alec Jennings, Jessica Schaefer, Vernon, Jennifer, and Lisa VanAusdall; seven great-grandchildren, brothers Curtis Gard and wife Annaleene of Weston, Mo., Paul Gard and wife Lela of Savannah, Mo., Wayne Gard and wife Sandra of Maryville, Dean Gard of Savannah; sisters Norma Sikes and husband Charles of Odessa, Texas, and Rose Ann Findlen and husband George of Madison, Wisc.
