—Jeremiah W. Cox died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Drenning, four miles east of Quitman, on the 15th of September, 1886. He had been in declining health for a year or two past. He was the father of George W. Cox. Mr. Cox was born in Ross county, Ohio, August 21, 1820. He moved from Ohio to Stark county, Illinois, in 1836, and moved to this county in 1869. The funeral sermon was preached at Wilcox on the 17th instant, at eleven a. m., by Rev. H. C. Bolin. The interment was in the Hellin cemetery, near Wilcox. Mr. Cox was highly esteemed in the community where he lived. He professed conversion and was baptized on the 6th of September, and died in the faith of a life of happiness in the world to come.
